

In February of 1964, local Woburn resident Gene English sent out a call to all interested artists and craftsman in the Woburn area. They all met at the historic Woburn Public Library and formulated The Woburn Guild of Artists. The Guild's first Art Exhibit was held on the lawn of the Woburn Public Library in May of 1964.

The purpose of the Guild is to promote an interest in the arts, to bring out the talent within its members and the local community, and to be recognized as a cultural group to whom the city of Woburn can point to with pride. Membership is open throughout the year to anyone interested in the arts and related fields. Professionals, and Students, and Sunday painters alike, have always been welcome.

The Guild member's interests are applied in Watercolors, Oils, Acrylics, Drawing, Pastels, Carving, Sculpture, Computer Graphics, Mixed Media, Needlepoint, Handcrafts, and Photography. The Guild provides monthly demonstrations, a weekly art group, workshops, tours, and community exhibitions. It's Annual Open Art Exhibition continues to be one of the highlights of the year, with professional judges awarding prizes and ribbons to the various artists and member participants.

WGA Mission Statement

The purpose of the Woburn Guild of Artists is to promote interest in the arts. It makes available to its members, and the community, assorted instruction in the arts, by inviting eminent artists to demonstrate in various media. It offers various programs and amenities including an Annual Art Exhibition and a Student Scholarship.

The Woburn Guild of Artists shall never exclude members because of gender, race, color, creed, culture, or religion. The Guild will never become a political or religious organization. The Guild must present all programs and exhibitions to the organization's and public interest.

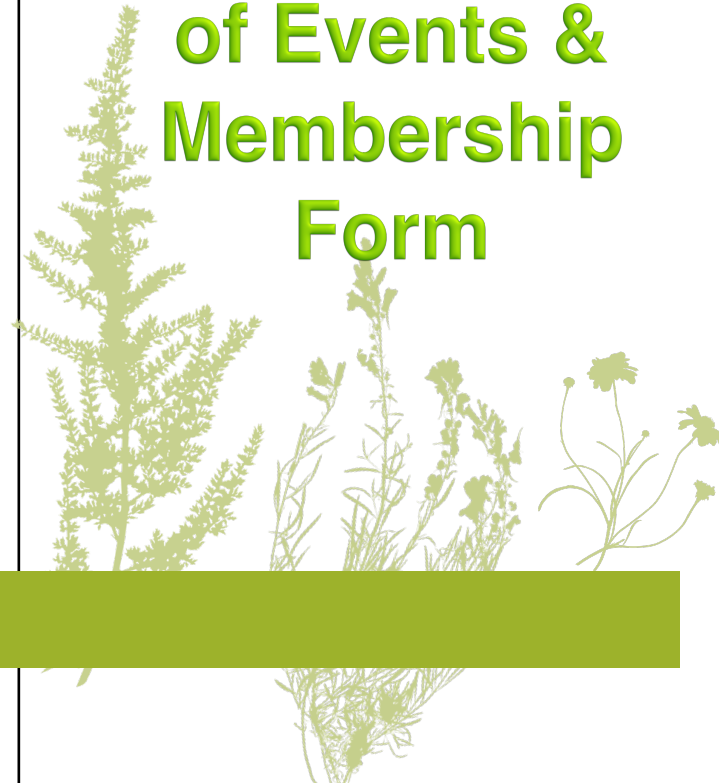

Lois Faulkner designed the original WGA logo in 1966.
